OMI_link

- Lets add a `title` property to be used to describe the destination
- Lets think about proper link UX especially with the back functionality in a browser. You should probably use the browser history instead of a referrer url appended to the query string or any other method that exposes the full referrer domain/url due to privacy concerns.

OMI_spawn_point

- Added to a node to designate it as a spawn point
- Could possibly be defined as an area instead of just a singular point
- OMI_link could use a fragment to link to a specific spawn point eg. <https://omigroup.org/worlds/meetup#spawnPoint1>
